

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 18, 1983

Dear Mr. Guetzloe:

I am always greatly pleased to learn of the efforts of organizations such as yours and the fine work you are doing.

Although we have accomplished much, there is a great deal more to do. The ills facing the American people have come upon us over several decades, and they will not go away quickly. I remain confident, however, that they will go away because we Americans have the capacity to perform great deeds. With God's help, we can and will resolve the problems which now confront us.

I commend each of you for your loyal service, your dedication and your willingness to use your special talents in so many helpful ways. I am counting on your continued support as we move forward in the days ahead to further implement our Administration's programs.

With best wishes and deep appreciation,

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan
